

Press release: 6-27-07

Pines Village Retirement Communities gives over $24,000 in scholarship awards

Pines Village Retirement Communities, Inc. (PVRC) announces the 2007-2008 winners of the Margaret M. Rivers and Anne Lauterbach scholarship awards. The scholarship program was created to foster employee longevity and encourage employees to pursue their higher education goals.

The Margaret M. Rivers fund was created in honor of Midge Rivers, founding director of PVRC. This year, $7020 was given from this fund.

The Anne Lauterbach fund was created in honor of the late Anne Lauterbach. Lauterbach was an educator and a Pines Village resident. This year, $17,480 was given from this fund.

A total of $24,500 was awarded to the following eleven undergraduate student employees:

Zafer Ahmed, employed in dining services for 4 years, attends Wabash College and is majoring in chemistry and history. His parents are Syed and Nikhat Ahmed.

Joshua Appel, employed in dining services for 2 years, attends Purdue University North Central and is majoring in construction engineering. His parents are James and Joyce Appel.

Luis Balcazar, employed in dining services for 2 years, attends Purdue University West Lafayette and is majoring in behavior neuroscience psychology and Spanish. His parents are Luis and Maria Balcazar.

Silas Bensing, employed in dining services for 2 years, attends Columbia College and is majoring in acoustics. His parents are Steve and Betty Bensing.

Jennifer Campano, employed in dining services for 3 years, attends Indiana University Northwest and is majoring in radiography. Her parents are Joseph Campano and Patricia Bottos-Campano.

Alexander Donkle, employed in dining services for 4 years, attends Purdue University West Lafayette and is majoring in acoustical engineering. His parents are Lou and Priscilla Donkle.

Joel Fabugais, employed in dining services for 4 years, attends Ivy Tech State College with a major in physical therapy assistant. His parents are Paul and Emelia Fabugais.

Adam Robinson, employed in dining services for 1 year, attends Purdue University North Central and is majoring in forestry conservation. His parents are Todd and Suzanne Robinson.

Jacqueline Sabol, employed in dining services for 1 year, attends Butler University with an undeclared major. Her parents are John and Veronica Sabol.

Dayna Thompson, employed in dining services for 4 years, attends Purdue University Calumet and is majoring in physics. Her parents are Richard and Deborah Thompson.

Brittany Waelde, employed in dining services for 4 years, attends Purdue University North Central and is majoring in sociology. Her parents are Sean and Melinda Trost and Harry Waelde.

Pines Village Retirement Communities is a nonprofit organization that has been providing housing and services for older adults since 1983. Our mission is to celebrate life by enriching the lives of older adults. Donations are accepted at 3303 Pines Village Circle, Valparaiso, IN 46383. For information call 219-465-1591 or visit our website at www.pinesvillage.org.